The Manual of "Bunny of Madness"

They were only programmed for the extermination of bugs.

But then...

The news that Kimi-san had been shot to death became public knowledge and all Hohoi bunnies mourned her loss.

But Hohoi bunnies could not take revenge against Combat fox even though they wanted to.

Mars Pharmaceuticals descended from the sky and gave power to the Hohoi bunnies.

A new patch was released that would let the Hohoi bunnies attack Combat fox.

Hohoi bunny took revenge for the old woman, Kimi-san, with the aid of Mars Pharmaceuticals' power patch.

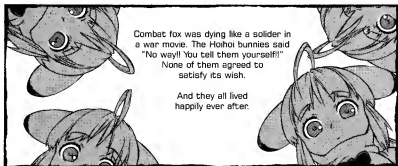

It begged.

They come out too often.
I heard that that nerd with an them too. Too bad for him. It's a around and buying out all the ones

Kimi-chan came over, but when she saw the size of my room she left right away. You can't blame her. You run into my bed as soon as you open the door. There are a lot of new Hoihoi-san products coming out lately. Compared with a year ago, my living space has shrunk quite a bit. Inversely, the number of cockroaches has been increasing.

HOIHOI-SAN IN DENGKI DAIO EDITORIAL DEPARTMENT

1056 There are no cockroaches here. Why did you buy Hoihoi-san?

Hanukichi Yeah, but it's kinda cute to see Hoihoi-san walking around in the office.

1056 Oh, is it like having a dog or a cat?

Hanukichi Yeah, exactly.

1056 What's with the receipt...?

Oh no, don't tell me...

Hanukichi It's not my Hoihoi-san. It's the editorial department's Hoihoi-san.

1056 No way...

Yasu Hanukichi-san. The meeting is starting.

Hanukichi Oh, OK. Be good Hoihoi-san.

—Hanukichi left without turning Hoihoi-san off. An undulating black shadow soon appeared from behind it. Guerilla-style exterminator Hoihoi-san found the pests and as was to be expected, started following the shadow.

1056 Hanukichi-san, I saw Hoihoi-san suddenly began to move and left somewhere.

Hanukichi What?! Are you serious?! Oh no!

—Hanukichi came back from the meeting and heard the shocking news that Hoihoi-san was missing. Hanukichi started canvassing the area.

◆◆ As you already know, Hoihoi-san's listed price is 25,800 yen (31,250 yen including tax). If you buy it as a toy, you can't claim it as a necessity and get reimbursed by your company. Hanukichi must have been coming up with all kinds of plans in order to trick his company's accounting department into giving him the expense voucher.

◆ Hoihoi-san is not only cute but seeks out and destroys pests without hesitation

◆ Hoihoi-san's custom parts are completely compatible with its recommended sister product, IX-X-9 "Pest-X-san".

—A piercing scream from the direction of a vending machine on the floor.

Zombie Mask Why is Hoihoi-san here? And at the same time as a cockroach too.

—When Hanukichi got there, he found an utterly destroyed Hoihoi-san. After losing 31,290 yen (including tax) like that, Hanukichi was devastated. But he soon returned to normal.

Hanukichi I'm so sorry I forgot to turn you off.

—With the receipt, Hanukichi had the law on his side. Because he bought it as a business expense, the company would pay for Hoihoi-san. Being brand new, it was still under warranty. He would be able to get a discount or even fix it for free. Hanukichi headed to his desk....

Hanukichi But it's a pain to have something brand new that needs to be fixed. Oh well, the receipt....

◆Here we see a Hoihoi-san in a helpless position. While in the middle of a fight, she must have had the unfortunate luck of entering the vending shoot of a vending machine when a can was being dispensed

◆In order to repair products under warranty, be sure to have the receipt with the store's mark on it

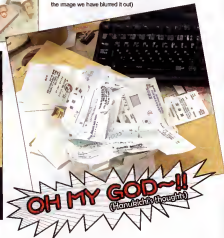

◆Hoihoi-san succeeded in exterminating the bugs despite her body being destroyed (Because of the horrific nature of the image we have blurred it out)

IT'S NO USE CRYING OVER SPILT MILK.

[Definition]

- ① Divorced couples never can go back to the way they were.
- ② Once you do something, you can't take it back.

It's the year 200XX. Bugs have become immune to all pesticides. However, to replace the old type of pesticides, the Japan/U.S. merger company "Xentex-Mars" released the Interceptor Doll, Hoihoi-san.
